A. Anastasia presented a proposal for a summer research position connected with the Honor Code and Council; there was discussion of what this job would entail and whether or not workers should have access to confidential information; the general feeling of Honor Council seemed to be that the job should include the organization of council documents, various Plenary plannings, and the planning of a summit to educate the community about the Code and to encourage discussion about the Code; Anastasia has been in communication with Helene Pollock, Marien Levy, Travis Green, and Nick Lotito regarding the possible creation of this position and will be speaking to Greg Kannerstein on Wednesday.
